

JAMAICAN CREOLE WORD OF THE WEEK:

“HAFFI”
/'HAFI/

VERB

Etymology:

Probably formed within English, by compounding. Perhaps a variant or alteration of another lexical item.

Etymons: have v., fɪ prep.; English have to.

Definition:

Have to (preceding a verb in the infinitive: see have v. VII). Cf. fɪ prep.

Example:

Patois: Mi haffi guh a wuk tomorrow.

English: I have to go to work tomorrow.

<https://www.pedllslab.com/>

